

Plaksha's Vision & Mission

Vision

To shape leaders, researchers and entrepreneurs - bold enough to transform the world and wise enough to do it responsibly.

Mission

Plaksha exists to:

Cultivate fearless, ethical leaders by bringing together exceptional minds in an environment where technology, humanities, and entrepreneurship converge around problems that matter.

Advance knowledge that matters and create real-world impact through multidisciplinary research and ventures that address the grand challenges of our times.

Build an institution that is nimble, inclusive and anchored in humanistic values.
